FORTIFICATIONS AT PORT ARTHUR.

Forts Which Have Been Made the Central Point of Attack by Japanese.

AT POUTLOFF HILL.

Japanese Troops Made a Fresh Attack on the Night of November 22.

ADVANCE RANKS DECIMATED.

Some Japs Who Secured Lodgement on the Slopes Were Driven Out at the Point of the Bayonet.

The Japanese Lost Heavily While the Russian Loss Was 30 Killed—In a Battle With Chinese Bandits 200 Were Killed.

Mukden, Nov. 25.—Japanese made a fresh attack on Poutloff hill the night of November 22. Their advancing ranks were decimated by the Russian shell fire. Some of the Japanese secured lodgement on the slopes of the hill, but were driven out at the point of the bayonet, when the whole Japanese contingent fled. A similar attempt was made the same night south of Erdazou, which also was repulsed with a bayonet charge. The Japanese lost heavily, while the Russian loss was 30 killed.

A band of 1,500 Chinese bandits with six guns, under Japanese officers, coming from the direction of the Liao river, was in conflict with three soldiers of border scouts near the station of Kaluan, early on the morning of November 23. The scouts charged without giving the bandits' battery time to come into action. The bandits made feeble resistance and fled in all directions, leaving 200 of their number dead. The Russian loss was trifling.

Japanese Driven Off With Severe Loss.

A Japanese column of two companies attempted to penetrate the Russian eastern flank on November 23, but was met by two squadrons of Russian cavalry and driven off with severe loss.

Before Port Arthur, Nov. 24, via Fusan, Nov. 25.—The only permanent forts in the possession of the Japanese are the two Panlung forts captured in August. They hold the advance works of the Rihlung redoubt, called Fort Kuropatkin, an entrenched hill misnamed "B" fort, Koku hill, Saehitakiyama and 174 meter hill. They also occupy the Caponiere galleries and moats of two Rihlung forts and North Kekwan fort.

Volunteer Steamer With Arms.

London, Nov. 25.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at Port Said asserts that the Russian volunteer steamer Vorenetz, which passed the Dardanelles as a transport, has three submarine boats on board and that the Yaraslav, which passed the Dardanelles similarly, has a large armament of Hotchkiss guns. "Evidently once through the canal," says the correspondent, "they will emulate the volunteer steamers St. Petersburg and Smolensk."

Wisconsin's Official Vote.

Milwaukee, Nov. 25.—The official returns from the recent election in Wisconsin shows a plurality for Roosevelt of 153,255. For governor, La Follette has a plurality over Peck of 51,732. The vote for Debs was 27,170; Swallow, 7,856; pop., 79; S. L., 59.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 25.—It is announced from Mukden that Don Jaime of Bourbon, son of Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, has been decorated with the order of St. Anne with swords for gallantry in several engagements.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 25.—Residents of Ludlow and vicinity who depend on rains for their supply of water are suffering on account of the long-continued drought.

WRECK ON HIGH BRIDGE.

Engineer Killed and Three Injured, One Probably Fatally.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 25.—A wreck on the C. N. O. & T. P. railway at High Bridge, 18 miles from here, resulted in the death of Engineer Ben Cunningham, of Somerset, Ky., and the injury of W. F. Bledsoe, of Midway; E. C. Cox, Campbellsville, Ky., and Ernest Shoars, Danville, Ky. Cox will probably die. The train was a freight running a double-header; four cars separated the two engines and about 300 yards from the bridge, over 200 feet high, an axle broke on the car following the first engine, derailing ten cars and the second engine. Cunningham, Bledsoe and Cox were pinned under the engine and all were badly burned. Bledsoe's left foot was crushed and he was scalded about the body and sustained internal injuries. Cox escaped suffocation by digging a hole in the ground into which he thrust his head. His whole body was literally cooked. The injured men were brought here on a special train and are in the St. Joseph's hospital.

ACCUSED OF POISONING WOMEN.

When Placed in Jail Julia McGraw Attempted Suicide.

Owingsville, Ky., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Julia McGraw, wife of a well-known Menefee county farmer, has been arrested near Maulba, charged with the alleged poisoning of Mrs. Martha Yocum, 65, who died, and three women named Botts.

Sheriff Ned Cope arrested Mrs. McGraw and lodged her in the Frenchburg jail. As she was being placed in a cell she suddenly placed a small bottle to her mouth and swallowed the contents before she could be prevented.

A physician was hastily summoned, and after hard work succeeded in saving the woman's life. The bottle was found to contain digitalis. She is being watched to prevent her committing suicide, which she says she will do.

CHAMPIONS DEFEATED.

State College Team Outplayed the Kentucky University.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 25.—Outplayed in all respects, Kentucky university, champions for three years, was defeated Thursday by State college in their annual game. The score was 21 to 4, Woodard saving K. U. from a white-wash by kicking a goal from the 25-yard line. The cadets early found the weak spots in the heavier crimson team, and hammered it for gains at all critical stages of the game. Two touchdowns were made by line plunges and the other two by end runs.

Made Him Take License Back.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 25.—Peter Blishon and Miss Eulah Clark were to have been married here. The girl is only 16. Her father came to the city and compelled the county clerk to go to the house and take away the license. Then the couple went to Cairo, where they were made husband and wife.

Thanksgiving Dinner.

Newport, Ky., Nov. 25.—The 62 inmates of the county infirmary were treated to a fine Thanksgiving dinner by the matron, Miss Hattie Weaver. Squares Donelan and Hutcheson sent out a wagon loaded with turkeys, chickens, colery, cranberries and other good things.

Has Not Answered Yet.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 25.—The notification committee of the Episcopal diocese of Kentucky, which went to Detroit to inform Rev. C. E. Woodcock of his election as bishop of Kentucky, returned home. The Bishop-elect will announce his decision Monday.

TO VISIT THE FAIR.

President Roosevelt and Party Left Washington at Midnight For St. Louis.

THEY OCCUPIED A SPECIAL TRAIN

Saturday Will Be Spent in Viewing Various Interesting Points in the Exposition Grounds.

Will Attend a Banquet in the Evening—Sunday Will Be Spent Quietly, and the Party Will Leave For Home Sunday Night.

Washington, Nov. 25.—President Roosevelt left here at midnight Thursday night for a visit to the St. Louis exposition. He was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Allee Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, Secretary and Mrs. Loeb, Surgeon General Rixey, of the navy, M. C. Latta, of the executive office, and representatives of the press associations. The party occupied a special train which is scheduled to arrive at St. Louis Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. An interesting program which will take up all the president's time while in the exposition city has been prepared by the local committee.

Saturday will be spent in visiting various points in the exposition grounds. At night the presidential party will attend a banquet in the main building of the Tyrolean Alps at which probably 600 or more people will be present. It is announced that the president will not make any speeches on his trip, although it is not improbable he will make some impromptu remarks at the Saturday evening function. Sunday will be passed quietly in St. Louis and at midnight the president and his party will leave on their special train for Washington, arriving here at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. While in St. Louis the president, Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, Secretary and Mrs. Loeb and Dr. Rixey are to be the guests of William H. Thompson, the treasurer of the exposition company. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will be entertained by President Francis.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 25.—President Roosevelt's special train, bearing the chief magistrate and party from Washington to St. Louis, arrived here at 1 a. m. After changing engines the train of three cars left at 1:05 a. m. over the Northern Central railroad for Harrisburg, Pa.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Report of the Chief of the Department of Domestic Exploitation.

St. Louis, Nov. 25.—Charles M. Reeves, chief of the department of domestic exploitation, who will retire from the World's fair December 1 after three years' service, submitted his final report to President Francis on Thursday.

The report states that the total amount appropriated by 44 states, three territories and the insular possessions of the United States for the exposition purposes was $9,281,777. Of this amount, the report says, $7,092,786 was cash, the balance being represented by furniture and exhibits.

At the Chicago exposition the states, territories and possessions of the United States appropriated $5,399,531.

PREHISTORIC RACE.

Mummies Found in a Cavern Near Silver City, N. M.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 25.—Miners have broken into a cavern containing two dozen mummies, near Silver City, N. M. Buried with the mummies were stone weapons and instruments showing that they belonged to a prehistoric race. The persons were apparently about five feet tall in life. Their heads were small and their arms long. The cave is 100 feet below the surface of the earth.

Joseph Tarvin Dead.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 25.—Joseph Tarvin, 62, veteran of the civil war and uncle of Coroner W. W. Tarvin, died Thursday at the Soldiers' home, Dayton, O. The deceased was a carpenter and was well known.

Soldier Boys Defeat Newport.

Newport, Ky., Nov. 25.—The Fort Thomas football team defeated the Newport team at East Newport park Thursday afternoon by a score of 16 to 0. The game was called at 3 p. m. and Newport kicked off.

Old Poolroom Opened.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 25.—The city poolroom was transferred Thursday to Seventh and P streets in the county and the saloon in which it was operated was crowded to the doors.

GERMANTOWN NUPTIALS.

Pretty Home Wedding of a Popular Couple Thanksgiving Eve at Residence of the Bride.

The crowning event of the season at Germantown was the wedding of Mr. W. B. Bell and Miss Jennie Cribfield Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the bride's residence.

A tower of chrysanthemums in the bay window arched with pine and mistletoe, proved an attractive background for the scene, which was composed of the bridal party, T. H. Bell and Miss Mary Dimmitt first attendants, H. S. Tucker and Miss Margaret Cribfield second attendants, with two little boys dressed in white—Paul Jones, nephew of the groom, and Julian Pollock, cousin of the bride—who untied the bow of ribbons to admit the bridal train. Last came the bride on the arm of the groom, dressed in pure white with the veil to enhance her beauty, and the groom in the conventional suit of black.

The wedding march, skillfully rendered by Miss Tucker, was played softly during the ceremony, which was pronounced by their pastor, Rev. S. H. Pollitt, in a brief but impressive manner.

The entire surroundings portrayed a scene of beauty with soft lights, delightful music, fragrant flowers and delicious refreshments.

The high esteem in which these young people are held is apparent from the many useful and handsome presents which they received.

CONTEST PROMISED.

Rottelessness and Fraud Charged in Robertson County's Democratic Primary Last Saturday.

The Democratic primary held in Robertson County Saturday will be contested, Bruce Massey, late candidate for Assessor, charges fraud in his home precinct, Burica.

There were 190 ballots printed for that precinct and 192 votes cast.

Our correspondent says there seems to have been rottenness all over the county. In at least two of the five precincts, it is alleged, the officers were not sworn. The vote surpassed that of Parker and Davis nearly a hundred, and it is believed that as many Democrats failed to vote in the primary as in the general election.

Many a girl has discovered that the young men who pose don't always propose.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 25.—Applicants for the local postmastership are becoming as thick as flies in summer, and a bitter war is being waged for supremacy among the opposing republican factions. Thursday R. L. Geers formally announced his candidacy.

Owing to the failure of officers of election certifying his poll in seven precincts in Carlisle County, Congressman Ollie James (Democrat) loses about 900 votes. Neglect to certify another precinct in Billard affects his vote to the extent of 120.

Stanley's Metropolitan Stock Company will play a three-night engagement at the Washington commencing Monday, opening in the thrilling drama, "The Slaves of Russia." The company carries special scenery. High-class vaudeville, illustrated songs and moving pictures between the acts. Ladies free Monday night under usual conditions if reserved before 6 p. m. Seat sale opens at Ray's Saturday morning.

Mrs. Mary Grant Cramer, youngest daughter of General U. S. Grant of East Orange, N. Y., is at Covington visiting relatives who still live in the old family residence on Greenup street. Mrs. Kate Burlingame of St. Louis, sister of Mrs. B. W. Goodman of this city, and a girlhood chum of Mrs. Cramer when she was pretty Mollie Grant, the belle of the neighborhood, who had not seen Mrs. Cramer for forty-five years, is also a guest there, and the two played the piano and together sang the old songs of their girlhood days.

General Manager Wagenhals of the Ohio River and Columbus Railroad at Ripley, has received notice that a contract has just been awarded him by the New York Central and Hudson River road to install on a trial track at Schenectady, N. Y., one of his protected third-rail electric systems. The contract was awarded him over a large number of competitors. The New York Central has just built a number of electric locomotives, and it is on these motors Mr. Wagenhals' patent will be used. Should the system be a success this great road will abandon steam as a motive power and use electricity entirely.

THANKSGIVING DAY

The American Society in London Gave Its Annual Banquet at the Hotel Cecil.

AN UNUSUAL NOTE WAS SOUNDED.

Sir Edward Clarke, Proposing Mr. Choate's Health, Decided the Title "American" Ambassador.

Said the Word Implied Domination Over All the Western Hemisphere and Suggested the Title Usona—Choate's Reply.

London, Nov. 25.—The annual Thanksgiving banquet of the American society at the Hotel Cecil Thursday night was marked by the presentation to Ambassador Choate of a portrait of himself painted by Hubert Herkemer and paid for by subscription by members of the society. An unusual note for such a gathering was introduced by Sir Edward Clarke, who, proposing Mr. Choate's health, sarcastically decided the title "American" ambassador, declaring that the word American implied domination over the whole of the western hemisphere, which the United States does not possess and is not entitled to, as Great Britain is territorially a larger power on the American continent than the United States. Sir Edward suggested that a more suitable title would be Usona, signifying United States of North America.

Underpayment of American Judges.

Having in the first public criticism here of the state department's order that embassies hereafter shall be called "American" thus uttered a "respectful protest" against the assumption of the larger name, Sir Edward Clarke proceeded to refer to the miserable underpayment of American judges and America's waste of energies in providing for survivors of civil war, and in building iron clads which she could never use.

Ambassador Choate, replying, said that Americans were quite satisfied with their name, and then referred to the recent election in the United States as a splendid tribute of devotion and affection. Having remarked upon the regeneration of public life in America, regardless of party, now in progress, Mr. Choate alluded to the ever-growing friendship between Great Britain and America as reason for thanksgiving and added: "I asked Lord Lansdowne if he was ready to negotiate treaty of arbitration. 'Why,' said Lord Lansdowne, 'it goes without saying.'"

Ambassador Choate's Rebuke.

Continuing, Mr. Choate maintained that many things go without saying between Great Britain and America, above all that they should avoid all possible causes of offense and settle all differences by peaceful means.

He paid a high tribute to the Archbishop of Canterbury's "Rediscovery of America" and dilated upon the value of visits to America by such men as the archbishop and John Morley.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, proposing President Roosevelt's health, expressed his sincere thanks for the great hospitality with which he was received in America. He said America faced problems greater than the world had ever seen, but by a stroke of genius had found the man to conquer the difficulties. "We on this side," said the archbishop, "not less than brothers to you across the Atlantic, thank God and take courage because the destinies of America are safe in Roosevelt's hands."

M'KINLEY MONUMENT.

It Was Unveiled at the Main Entrance of Golden Gate, San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—A monument to the memory of President McKinley was unveiled Thursday at the main entrance of Golden Gate park. It is a symbolical statue of the republic, modeled by Robert Altid, a sculptor of this city, and cast in bronze. The figure, on a granite pedestal, represents a woman of heroic size with a large sword in one hand and an uplifted palm in the other. The presentation was made by former Mayor James D. Phelan.

Cartoonist Nelan Dying.

Cave Springs, Ga., Nov. 25.—Charles Nelan, the New York cartoonist who has been here for some time in search of health, is slowly sinking and the attending physicians have abandoned all hope. His wife and sister are at his bedside. The cartoonist's home is in Akron, O.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 25.—John E. Madden, proprietor of Hamburg place, arrived home from the east with his racing stable. The entire bunch was in excellent form, and were immediately taken out to his farm, where they will be turned out for the winter.

THOS. J. CHENOWETH,

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Second and Sutton Streets, Maysville, Ky.

Walter O. Wormald, leading candidate for Justice of the Peace in the First, Second and Third wards, has been a Democrat from conviction since he was fifteen years of age. He has never been an offensive partisan, however, and numbers many Republicans among his friends. He has never been a candidate before the people till this time. He is unwilling to "scramble" for office now, but hopes by an active canvass and seemingly methods to secure a majority of the votes. Mr. Wormald expects to do what all candidates ought to do, namely: Make out his campaign expense account, without evasion, swear to same before a Notary Public as evidence of good faith, and give the public ample opportunity to inspect same. He trusts that even his opponent will grant, after the election is won or lost, that he has no complaint to make of his political tactics. Mr. Wormald authorizes us to say that he is absolutely in no combination of candidates, but is running solely on his merits.

ECONOMY

Is invariably the result when in buying eatables you buy the best. Never buy anything to eat when not good because it looks cheap. It is clear at any price. In these days of adulteration and low priced foods it becomes the duty of every one to seek closely what he buys and reject everything of a suspicious character. In order to be on the safe side always buy of the experienced dealer who knows the good from the bad and who will not handle impure and poisonous goods. I am now opening an unusually large and most attractive stock of high grade goods for the fall and winter trade.

New Crop. New Orleans Molasses

direct from the plantation to the consumer. No better made. FINEST SORGHUM ever sold in Maysville. The only trouble is in getting as much of it as I can sell. My stock of CANNED GOODS is immense—bought direct from the packers. When prices were very much lower than they are now I bought heavily of Green Coffee and am in position to name very attractive prices on either green or roasted goods. I get in each week a supply of freshly roasted goods from the roasting house in New York where I have my Collect for roasting and can sell you better Coffee at 15, 20 and 25 cents than others sell at 20, 25 and 30 cents. My stock of Teas—green and black is always full and complete.

PERFECTION FLOUR

is the finest flour sold in Maysville. In fact it has no superior anywhere. My stock of Apples, Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, Figs, Citron, Orange and Lemon Peels, Dates, Raisins, Apples, Almonds, Meat and Plum Pudding, Prunes, Buckwheat Flour, Maple Syrup, White Clover Honey, Cereals of all kinds, Hominy, Beans &c. of the very best. Ladenburger's Crah Oiler, Baltimore Oysters in bulk and cans, Celery, Cranberries, Poultry and Game, in fact everything good to eat of the very best. Look out for my holiday special and when you come to our city you are specially invited to make my house your headquarters. Remember, I buy all kinds of country produce such as Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Game &c. Will buy one hundred extra cured old Country Hams in weight from ten to fifteen pounds each.

Maysville Should Be Proud.

Mr. A. L. Merz was the only buyer from Maysville attending the greatest carpet and rug sale ever held in the United States. It is estimated that nearly six million dollars worth of rugs and carpets were sold at this auction sale and it should be of great pride to the people of Maysville that Merz Bros. was represented there by Mr. A. L. Merz. They bought considerable quantities of these goods and it will be probably two weeks before these goods arrive, and Merz Bros. say that not a person should buy a rug or a carpet until their sale starts. Then come to the sale, compare the goods and prices and then you will know why Merz Bros. are the leaders in Maysville.

We Have Made Preparations

For and fully expect a largely increased holiday business. The business situation, irrespective of weather conditions, is greatly improved. Abundant crops and good prices prevail and we see no reason why these happy conditions should not continue. There is a tendency this year to buy a better class of goods than in years past, merchandise of a more substantial character having the preference over trinkets.

Priestly Cravenettes.

What more acceptable for a Christmas present for anybody of the male sex than one of our genuine Priestly (stamped on every garment) Cravenettes? Prices $10 to $20.

GEORGE H. FRANK & CO.,

Maysville's Foremost Clothiers.

Clarence Reeves and Miss Emma D. Johnson of this county and Chas. E. Brooks and Miss Mamie C. Broomhall of Sardinia, Ohio, were married Thanksgiving day in the County Clerk's office by Judge Newell.

The comic opera of El Capitan, March King Sousa's best work will be presented at the Washington by a strong company, headed by Thos. H. Burlew in the role made famous by De Wolf Hopper. The date is Friday, December 2.

Captain Allen Dodson was at Lexington Thursday to witness the State College football game. Assistant Postmaster Frank Devine was up also, but it is being whispered about that his mission was of a more touching nature.

The funeral of William Moore, who was murdered last Sunday by negroes at Lexington, was held Tuesday morning. Messrs. William, John and Samuel Bramuel of this county, brothers of Mrs. Moore, were pall-bearers.

MAYSVILLE, KY

SUDDEN SUMMONS.

Mr. John B. Orr Passed Away Wednesday at Noon After a Brief Illness of Pneumonia.

Friends of the family were shocked to learn of the sudden death of Mr. John B. Orr, the carpenter, which occurred Wednesday about 12:30 o'clock at his home on East Third street, of pneumonia.

He had been suffering with a deep cold for a week or more, but was not thought seriously ill, and he continued at work up to the evening before his death when he was compelled to go to bed. He continued to grow worse until Wednesday at noon, when he expired suddenly in his wife's arms.

Deceased was fifty-four years of age and had lived here all of his life. He was a kind man, well liked by everybody, and was noted for his charitable traits in visiting and administering to the sick and dead.

He is survived by a widow and two sons—Benson and Lowry; also a brother, Mr. George Orr of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. Theo. Lowry and Miss Liza Orr of Connelleville, Pa., besides many other relatives here and in Cincinnati.

He belonged to the A. O. U. W. and P. O. S. of A. lodges of this city and was a member of the Neptune Fire Company—one of the old, faithful volunteers who could always be depended on at any hour of the day or night—and rendered efficient service in stamping out most of the stubborn conflagrations that have visited Maysville in his time.

Funeral Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. Services by Rev. Dr. Molloy of the Central Presbyterian Church. Burial in Maysville cemetery.

MRS. JULIA PYLES.

Mrs. Julia A. Pyles, mother of Mrs. Isaac P. Chamberlain of Piqua, Robertson County, died at the latter's home on Monday afternoon. She was seventy-six years old and her death was the result of the infirmities of age.

Deceased was a sister of the late Henry J. Wilson of Sardis and widow of Thomas Pyles whom she survived some thirty years. Her husband was a brother of E. O. Pyles, John Pyles, Len Pyles, all well-known Mason Countians. Burial at Shannon Tuesday afternoon.

W. H. Key, fire and accident insurance.

See Gerbrich to-day about that piano.

New molasses and buckwheat—Calhoun's.

Painless extraction of teeth at Dr. Cartmell's.

Underwear for ladies, gentlemen and children at Hainline's.

The County Fair given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. netted $101.

Miss Phoebe Marshall is reported quite sick at her home at Washington.

C. J. Arthur, administrator of Sophia Arthur, has filed his inventory and appraisal.

Little Miss Mary Alter Barbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Barbour, is very ill with diphtheria.

Mathew O'Connell and Miss Kate O'Neal of Mayslick were married Wednesday, Rev. Father DeBruine officiating.

Cast your ballot for Walter C. Wormald for Justice on the First district Magisterial bench and secure a faithful public servant.

Wm. Foley was appointed administrator of his father's estate, the late Michael Foley, and qualified as such with Thomas Mackey surety.

The remains of Mrs. Hays who died Wednesday at her home in Cincinnati, were brought here this morning and interred in the cemetery at Washington.

Walter C. Wormald is admirably qualified—both in temperament and mental attainment—to occupy the Magisterial bench. As a judicial officer he will be a credit to the public service. Vote for him.

George H. Frank & Co.'s business is spreading and their advertising appropriation expands accordingly. The firm takes additional space in the BULLETIN today to tell of increased trade conditions and their genuine Priestly cravenettes. They style themselves "Maysville's foremost clothiers."

The little four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boughton of Clifton, who was so badly burned about two weeks ago by having her dress catch fire from an open grate, died Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Funeral Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, services by Rev. Sturgie. Burial in Maysville cemetery.
